

Behold, a Table Is Spread

words and music
Greg Scheer, 2017

E Am/E E Am/E E Am/E E Am/E E Am/E E

1. O Bread of Life, sus - tain, ___ with man - na each ___ new day; ___
2. O Spot - less Lamb of God, ___ be yet ___ a - gain ___ our life. ___
3. O Liv - ing Wa - ter, flow ___ in nev - er end - ing streams ___ and ease our hun - ger pangs ___ with food a - long the way.

10 Am/E E Am/E C#m B/D# E

May your re - deem - ing blood ___ run deep, and rich as wine.
re - vive our with - ered souls ___ with - in ___ the de - sert's heat.

16 Am/E E Am/E E Am/E E

For hun - ger hounds us still; ___ we faint, but you ___ are kind. ___
Oh, let this new wine flow, ___ fruit from the one ___ True Vine. ___
For still your peo - ple thirst ___ parched are ___ the throats ___ that praise. ___

22 Am/E E Am/E C#m B A2

Our hearts long to ___ be filled ___ with you, O Bread of Life.
Let those who drink it know ___ a joy ___ com - plete, di - vine.
Let streams of mer - cy burst; ___ drench us ___ with floods of grace.

28 G/B Cmaj7 D G E

Be - hold, a ta - ble is spread ___ a ___ feast for hun - gry souls. Come,

33 Am C G D Cmaj7

eat the Liv - ing Bread. ___ Come, drink the wine that flows. He who bids us, "Come and dine,"

38 D G E Am G F C/E

___ is ___ feast, and friend, and host. Come taste and see ___ the ___ good - ness of the Lord. The ___ good - ness of the Lord.

43 G/D A/C# Am2 Bm7 C2 D2 E