

O Lord of All, You Are Our Home

Psalm 46

G/C F/C F/C C G/B A m C/G G/F F C/E

1. O, Lord of all, you are our home, our strength, and our sure refuge; our
2. A riv - er flow - ing from God's throne brings life, and joy, and heal - ing. God's
3. Come see the mar - vels God has done. Be - hold with awe and won - der. Hear

6 G/D D m D m/A A m F C/E Dsus D m on - ly hope in fierc - est storm to whom we run for res - cue. The—splen - dor, shin - ing like the sun, gives light to all the peo - ple. For—how the bat - tle's deaf - ning sound falls si - lent at God's thun - der: "I—

10 A m F C G

ground be - neath our feet may slip in - to the sea, but—though the na - tions roar, soon comes a glo - rious morn. Our—AM your God, be still." Let all the na - tions kneel. Ex -

14 A m F C/G G

still we will not fear; in you, we rest se - cure. The—God will come and dwell as our Em - ma - nu - el: The—alt the Lord of all, your ref - uge, strength, and home. The—

18 D m C/E F D m C/E F C

Lord of all is with us. The— Lord of all is with us.
Lord of all is with us. The— Lord of all is with us.
Lord of all is with us. The— Lord of all is with us.

22 F/C G/C F/C C

O,
A
Come