

Oh, That I Had Wings

Psalm 55

words and music by Greg Scheer,
September, 2017

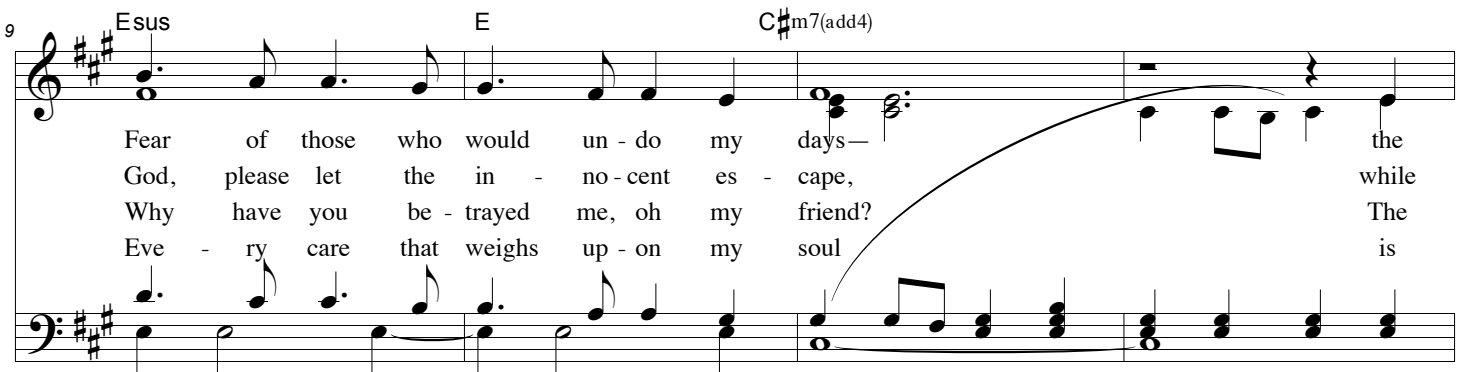

F#m Bm2/D

1. Lis - ten— to my prayer, O— God, please hear:
2. Mal - ice— seeks its prey, it— roams the streets.
3. Brac - ing— for the sword of— foe's at - tack,
4. Night and— day, I pray, O— God, please hear:

5 F#m Bm2/D

trou - bled thoughts rise from a— heart of fear;
Night and— day, it prowls— there is no peace.
feel the— steel of dag - ger— in my back.
trou - bled thoughts rise from a— heart of fear.

9 Esus E C#m7(add4)

Fear of those who would un - do my days— the God, please let the in - no - cent es - cape, while Why have you be - trayed me, oh my friend? The Eve - ry care that weighs up - on my soul is 13

D2 A2

whis - pers, stares, con - tempt, the lies and rage.
 schem - ers writhe with - in the traps they've laid.
 one with whom I've shared the wine and bread?
 safe with you, please keep me safe, O Lord.

17

G Em Bm/D Cmaj7 G

Oh, that I had wings, Oh, that I had wings — to fly,

22

D/F# Em Bm/D Asus A

Oh, that I had wings to fly a - way.