

Light and Salt

text inspired by Matthew 5:13-16

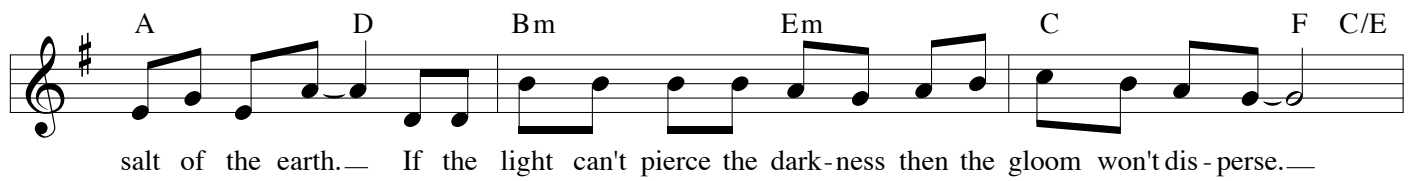

words and music by Greg Scheer, BMI

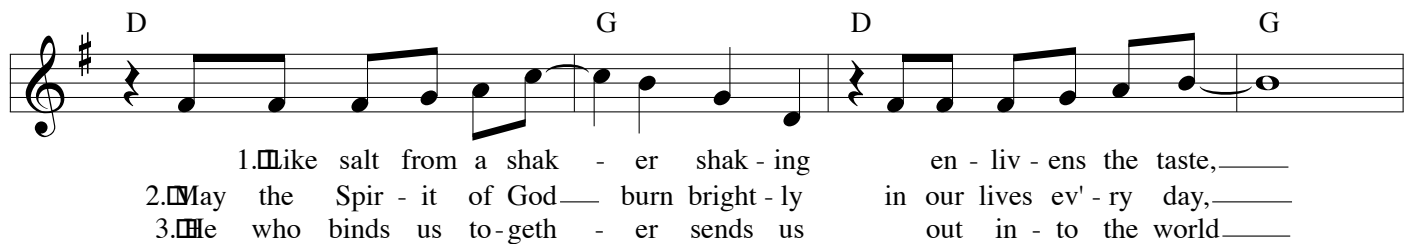

We are the light of the world— and the salt of the earth.— If the salt has lost its fla-vor it has lost all its worth.— We are the light of the world— and the salt of the earth.— If the light can't pierce the dark-ness then the gloom won't dis-perse.—

1. Like salt from a shak - er shak - ing en - liv - ens the taste, —
2. May the Spir - it of God — burn bright - ly in our lives ev' - ry day, —
3. He who binds us to - geth - er sends us out in - to the world — the mes-sage that we — are tak - ing — is sea-soned with grace. — like a bea-con of light — that shows the life the — truth and the way. — to bring a mes-sage of light — and love and wis-dom — from — His words. —
